The fallney of such a provement is too transparate and plant sentiments for the exigneies of the analytic such a representation of the exigneies of the analytic sentiments for the exigneies of the analytic sentiments of the great diversity of doctrine that pervales the body politic, and of the seeming impracticability of harmonizing such discordant and uncongenial elements. The whole truth in the premises is, that the thing is just perfectly into sible, and the efforts being made to accomplish it will prove simply a wasto of strength and a useless war of words. To an observant mind this fart is so perfectly palpable that one is led to wonder how it is that, in such a multitude of intelligence, the issue has not been directly met and the award mane.

issue has not been directly met and the award mane.

A national constitutional platform must be rece ed, regardless of the extent of the excisions which it demands. The popular will calls for the operation, and that without delay.

To be longer thomey-fingled? by the Wilson Abolitionsts—mange their proposterious and absurd claims to be recognized as mationals and Unionists is to bring into positive mand deserved more the deliterations of the body.
